COL-100000

Who should be killed, human or arcanist?

Which past do you want to return?

The "past" with the right order, of course.

It's you?

And this "mutation" has turned money into food in people's eyes.

Don't forget me.

What is the "Storm," sir?

I need Vertin to grow.

—The way I prefer.

Sonetto! Stop them!

They wanted to know the outside world.

But the Student Handbook asks us to forget about all these.

Freedom! Long live liberty!

Heh, checkmate.

Vertin, the person we rely on, is being hypnotized in the rehab center.

I will do what I can, in my power.

Sense of justice ...

Release us, set Vertin free!

Storm Reformation: Manpower and Discipline passed.

What was that?

Finally awake?

Meet your friends first.

Vertin!

Now you come back!

The tempest blocked every signal I sent for help.

What was that?

This is the year 2007, is it not?

This is an archaic arcanist group we're dealing with.

I beg you: do not take your conflict in the phenomenal world into the realm of Truth.

I take not thought for needless disputes ...

What are they?

Did you bring the humans' army here?

The island of the painting ... Is that where the Timekeeper is at now?

Inspired by the Golden Isle.

I am intrigued by the name of your little group—"The Circle."

Can't let the clues end here!

I "read" the "Storm" immunity ritual! We did it!

In other words, we will all be taken by the "Emanation"?

I shall die today.

What was that?

Stop the transmission! The ritual is wrong!

No.

And this is what you call a "promise."

... is a knot.

The oldest, fastest, and most basic ritual, the key to braving the "Storm" ...

But people have a right to try before doomsday arrives.

Why aren't you stopping them, 6?

No!

Leave the island. To the world outside.

The culmination of our research, the crystallization of man and all its wisdom—The protective gear against the "Storm."

It's called the Equilibrium Umbrella.

I think ... I've found her.

The Mother Spirit slumbers to the south.

I'm the only one left.

What happened to your research team?

How could traitors possibly serve THEM?

A gesture of good faith.

What's your purpose in all this?

We're outta time!

The road ahead will only grow more dangerous.

Nautika!

Where are you going?!

At last, the moment has come!

THEY shall lead us to the promised land!

For the Sufferer—is returned!

No!

So sleep my baby, grow bright, grow firm.

Mum!
