A painting based on the mysterious island?

The host is Isolde, the opera singer?

Oh! Poor thing. Every member of that family's met a tragic end, and now her brother ...

Shh ...

Theophil ... has left us.

Behold, my late brother's final painting. Inspired by the Golden Isle—

The Salvation.

Ms. Dittarsdorf.

I know your brother's death has affected you deeply.

Doctor ...

You need to release your repressions.

"The rain," "the Golden Isle" ...

The island of the painting ... is that where the Timekeeper is at now?

How did Theophil know about the "Storm" and the island?

He belonged to an organization called "The Circle."

It's the symbol of "The Circle" ...

Are they really just a group of artists?

What do you see in the mirror?

I see ... golden circles ...

Theophil, in the fire ...

He ...

He burned all his paintings ...

And then, I heard a shot.

All these assassinations ... at the same time?

Will our people be able to defend themselves on that island?

To help them is to help ourselves.

I can see how you burned with passion.

Welcome to "The Circle,"

Ms. Marcus!

We share the same dream as you.

I am intrigued by the name of your little group, "The Circle" ...

Even if the world ends tomorrow, we still have a show to watch.

Please, enjoy.
