It's one of the arcanist's lineages, a rare kind, Ms. Spathodea ...
Based on the past cases, you will eventually become yourself again ...
The old self!
What you saw in your mind were not illusions, but memories from "your past self"!
I ... I remember it now ...
Under the starry sky, on the scorching sand,
countless arcanists ran like a herd of beasts.
Gosh, they are all in my head ...
That's ... the only sports stadium built for arcanists ...
And I was ... the first Priestess of Uluru ever ...
I don't think any arcanist would say no
to witnessing the revival of the once magnificent Games.
A junior student from Melbourne,
an old soul, a reincarnator,
what's her attitude, and what will she do?
Please find out with me!
Come on, Flammy.
Let's light up the Uluru torch!
